CHAMPAGNES

Taittinger Brut (Non-Vintage, France)	55,000
--	---------------

This effervescent delight offers a symphony of fruit and brioche aromas with subtle notes of peach, white flowers, and vanilla. It makes a lively entrance on the palate, harmonizing fresh fruit flavors with a whisper of honey.

Cattier Brut Quartz (Non-Vintage, France)	50,000
--	---------------

Composed of a blend from various crus, predominantly Pinot Meunier, and aged longer to mature its flavors. Expect an aromatic palette ranging from plum and prune to biscuit and brioche, rounded out with a touch of orange blossom. The taste profile is robust, with fruit and muscat grape flavors leading to a spicy finish.

Pierre Mignon Rosé Brut (Non-Vintage, France)	40,000
--	---------------

A rosé that presents a visual and aromatic allure with its berry scent accented by biscuit complexities. It's a vibrant sip, merging juicy fruitiness with a delicately perfumed finish.

SPARKLING WINES

Bottega Prosecco Spumante DOCG (Non-Vintage, Italy)	16,000
--	---------------

A sparkling example of Prosecco's charm, boasting a bouquet of green apple, pear and citrus, accompanied by white flowers and a hint of aromatic herbs. The palate is soft and elegant, carrying a slender body with a lively balance.

Kraemer Vin Mousseux (Non-Vintage, France)	15,500
---	---------------

A toast to the senses with aromas reminiscent of buttery toasted bread and honey. The creamy texture, effervescence, and gentle fruit flavors create a well-rounded and pleasing experience.

Freschello Rosé Spumante (Non-Vintage, Italy)	15,000
--	---------------

This sparkling rosé is crisp and animated, with a refreshing fruity profile. Its aromatics suggest sweet confections, setting the stage for an enjoyable, extended aperitif.

WHITE WINES

Pouilly-Fuissé by Albert Bichot (France)	22,000
A delightful Pouilly-Fuissé exuding aromas of ripe pear, white peach, and lemon, with touches of butter and tea leaves. Its palate is elegantly medium-bodied, with a perfect harmony of creaminess, bright acidity, and a gentle tannic presence leading to a moderately dry finish.
Chablis by Albert Bichot (France)	19,500
A Chablis that offers a straightforward medium-bodied experience with a nose that's more floral wood than ripe fruit. On the palate, it's dry with lively acidity, leading to a medium finish with a firm texture.
Los Cardos Dona Paula Sauvignon Blanc (Argentina)	12,000
Exhibiting a vibrant yellow hue, this wine is intensely aromatic with passion fruit, grapefruit, and lime taking center stage.
Cape Dreams Sauvignon Blanc (South Africa)	12,500
An elegant wine that boasts a palette of tropical and passion fruit, accented with hints of green fig and melon, and finished with the tartness of gooseberry.
Terra Andina Sauvignon Blanc (Chile)	12,000
A rich, ripe wine offering crisp tangerine and peach flavors with a prolonged finish. Ideal with fish or poultry.
Somerton Sauvignon Blanc (Australia)	12,500
A fresh and light wine, brimming with tropical fruit flavors, particularly guava and passion fruit, ending with a neat, crisp finish.
Somerton Chardonnay (Australia)	12,000
This Chardonnay presents fresh, vibrant aromas of peach and melon with a palate full of lively varietal flavors.
Cape Dreams Chardonnay (South Africa)	12,500
A gently oaked Chardonnay that dances with peach blossom and pear-drop aromas, delivering fresh apple and citrus notes and concluding with buttery undertones.
Cielo Pinot Grigio (Italy)	12,500
A clear straw-yellow wine with greenish highlights, offering an aroma of bread crust and green apple. The palate is clean and harmonious, balancing fruit with acidity and a spicy finale.
Don Simon Selection Airen (Spain)	12,000
A young, bright, and easy-drinking wine that's light and straightforward, perfect with seafood, white meats, rice, and semi-cured cheeses.
Muscadet Sèvre-Et-Maine (France)	12,000
Showcasing a pale-yellow color with green nuances, this wine opens with an expressive, complex bouquet of florals. It's a round and fresh palate with exotic fruit and citrus, great as an aperitif or paired with fish and seafood.

RED WINES

Chateauneuf-Du-Pape by Domaine De Cristia (France)	28,500
A lavish wine offering fresh red and black cherry notes, laced with strawberry and hints of fresh herbs, creating a full-bodied, deep experience.
Rosso Bastardo IGT by Cesarini Sartori (Italy)	25,500
With a full bouquet of jam berries and vegetal hints, this wine balances terrific softness with freshness, representing its region well, perfect with red meats and aged cheeses.
Médoc by Château Le Vieux Fort (France)	16,000
This wine is generous with macerated fruit and a whisper of mint, complemented by roasted undertones, offering firm tannins that promise to mellow, leaving a lasting impression.
Saint Émilion by Château La Pointe Bouquey (France)	15,000
From Bordeaux, this wine displays a purple-red hue with a nose of fruit and walnut, offering a round and smooth palate.
Pinot Noir by Cielo (Italy)	14,500
A light, soft, and fruity Pinot Noir featuring red berry and cherry aromas with a rich raspberry palate accented by a touch of spice, concluding with silky tannins and a lengthy finish.
Beaujolais Villages by Albert Bichot (France)	14,500
Exhibiting a ruby robe, this wine brings wild woodland berry and floral scents, leading to a silky, full-flavored palate.
Malbec by Los Cardos from Dona Paula (Argentina)	12,500
A supple and rich Malbec with fresh cherry notes, ideal with rich red meats due to its fine tannin structure.
Tempranillo by Don Simon Selection (Spain)	12,500
A robust, elegant wine, offering a symphony of black currant and berry aromas, perfect alongside a hearty red meat dish.
Cabernet Sauvignon by Somerton (Australia)	12,000
A robust, elegant wine, offering a symphony of black currant and berry aromas, perfect alongside a hearty red meat dish.
Cabernet Sauvignon by Cape Dreams (South Africa)	12,500
This opulent red wine boasts a rich texture, characterized by a deep grape essence and refined by its French oak maturation.
Merlot by Terra Andina (2023, Chile)	12,000
A harmonious blend of berry and cocoa, this merlot presents a smooth and rich profile, ideal with pizza, pasta, or steak.
